The Corn Exchange, Brighton

The same paper that fills your vacancies also hosts the best careers fairs ever seen in Brighton and Hove

Publicity:

With our unparalleled coverage of Sussex, The Argus Careers and Training Fair benefits from a publicity campaign that saturates the county. If your business is represented with a silver, gold or platinum package your name will be linked to a campaign spanning The Argus, Leader Series, Life Newspapers, The Worthing Sentinel and the only local commuter publication in Sussex, Argus Lite.

We don't stop there, with additional posters, flyers, lamppost banners, ads with both University newspapers and online promotion on theargus.co.uk we make sure our reach is spread as far as possible.

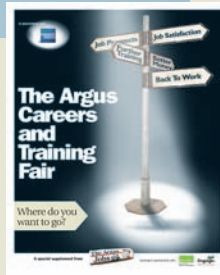

Same venue, new look:

To help you look your best on the day we've added booths to the Corn Exchange hall. Each one will be fronted with your company name, will have a power point, two spot lights, a covered table and four chairs. There are three sizes to choose from (see overleaf) depending on your budget, your needs and of course how you want to look!

Promotional Supplement & Feature:

If you take the Silver, Gold or Platinum package you will be announcing your presence at the Careers Fair the Tuesday before in our promotional supplement. You will be able to take advantage of reduced rate advertisements, and free editorial and photographs.

You will need to supply your editorial and 2-3 high resolution photographs (large 200 dpi minimum) to keith.winsper@theargus.co.uk by Monday, September 10

Working together:

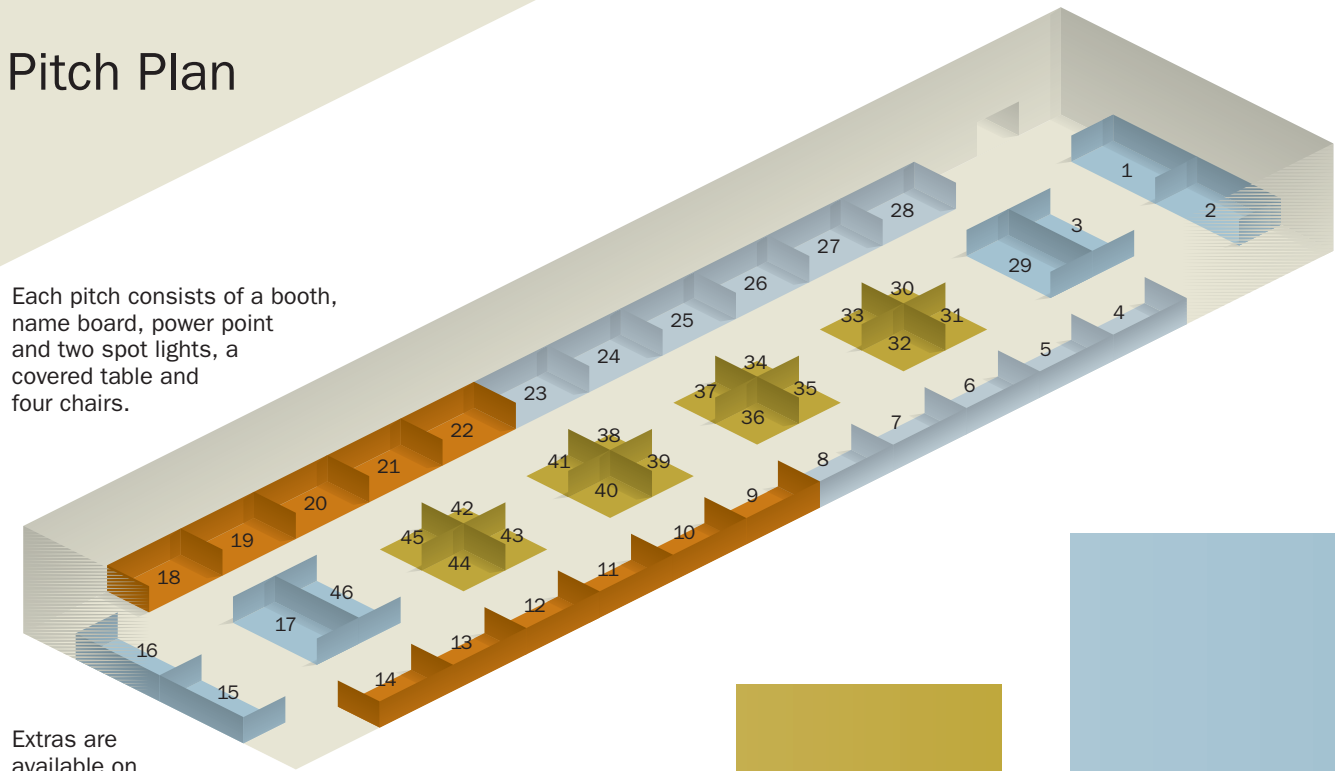

To support employer and employee, Engage Group will be running a next steps pre-event to which all exhibitors are invited to supply details of application procedure and job specifications. Please contact Claire Mitchell on 07812 177427 or Claire.mitchell@engagesolutions.org.uk for further details.

On the day:

You will be assigned your own Argus representative to ensure your day goes as smoothly as possible. Hot and cold beverages and a complimentary lunch will be provided.
